ECHO

Published by the Senior Class
CHAMBERSBURG HIGH SCHOOL
Chambersburg, Pennsylvania
MARY ANNE ALDINGER, Editor-in-chief

Foreword

Should you ponder o'er the old days,
When your hearts were young and gay;
Musing o'er thoughts of the dim past—
Thoughts of friends now far away,
Leaf then these immortal pages;
Turn again to days of yore.
Mem'ries sweet await your finding;
Enter through the open door.

Dedication

The Class of 1948 dedicates this thirty-first edition of the ECHO to the achievement of a permanent and universal brotherhood of nations. Knowing that world peace will exist only if all men live as brothers, we likewise dedicate ourselves to help attain this ideal.

Our Class Advisers

For their wise counsel, sincere friendliness, and helpful assistance, the Class of 1948 is indeed grateful.

MISS JEANNE H. KIRBY

"Thou wert our guide, philosopher, and friend."

—Pope.

MR. G. A. W. STOUFFER

The Class of 1948 is honored to pay tribute to Mr. G. A. W. Stouffer, who for the past ten years has served as president of the Chambersburg Board of School Directors. With his resignation the Chambersburg schools lose the leadership of one who has given his whole-hearted interest to what for him was not just a duty, but an enjoyment. We regret that his regular duties prevent him from participating actively in our endeavors, but we know that he will continue his interest in the schools he has been so instrumental in developing.

CLASS HISTORY

1944-1945

In September, 1944, our class of three hundred and fifty-three green and very self-conscious freshmen entered the open doors of the Chambersburg High School. We were badly confused that first day, but with the assistance of a few sympathetic upperclassmen, we soon became familiar with high school routine. The Hallowe'en Party was our first "get-together", and in a short time we "greenies" were an accepted part of the social life. Members of our class eagerly entered the various activities. Some began successful gridiron careers; other members showed promising musical ability; and many became respected leaders in the various organizations. We elected Max Tolbert as president; William Kane, vice-president; Jean Bowers, secretary; Margaret Malone and Wilmot Gabler, treasurers; and Josephine Locke, historian. Mrs. Helen H. Martin and Mr. Norman Hoover served as advisers.

1945-1946

We entered our second year of high school life with great enthusiasm. Our newly chosen theme, "Achievement," became the personal goal of each sophomore. Both boys and girls revealed great athletic skill. C's were awarded to Max Tolbert, William Kane, and Wilbur Naugle. A number of "sophs" likewise had leading roles in the productions of Junior Miss and The Belle of Barcelona. Color day was, of course, the event of the year, and the committees eagerly prepared the program, song, and cheer for the big day. Arlene Watson and Patricia Kessinger represented us in the Queen's Court. It was indeed a thrilling moment when the senior president proudly presented the red and white banner to our president, William Kane. The other officers were: Wilbur Naugle, vice-president; Jean Bowers, secretary; Margaret Malone and Wilmot Gabler, treasurers; and Josephine Locke, historian. Miss Harriet Plough and Mrs. Jane Hoyt were our advisers.

1946-1947

As juniors we soon became school leaders. William Kane again led the class as president; Wilbur Naugle was vice-president; Margaret Malone, secretary; Arlene Watson and Samuel Johnson, treasurers; and Patricia Kessinger, historian. Miss Jeanne Kirby and Mr. Arthur Myers became our advisers. Many of the boys were very outstanding in football and basketball. On Color Day we presented a movable illuminated bulletin board to the school. Patricia Kessinger was Maid of Honor to the Queen, and Sandra Huber and Arlene Watson were our representatives. The most exciting event of the year was the Prom. Formally attired couples danced to the music of Zel Smith in the artistically decorated gymnasium. The juniors sadly said good-bye to the seniors, who had been our friends since that first September.

1947-1948

For our senior year we elected William Kane as president; Wilmot Gabler, vice-president; Mary Ann Benedict, secretary; Sandra Huber and Samuel Johnson, treasurers; and Patricia Kessinger, historian. Miss Kirby and Mr. Myers continued to be our advisers. Captains Johnson and Kane, backed by a hearty squad of senior lettermen and cheered by cheerleader captain, Margaret Malone, led the football team to high honors. Many seniors served as officers for the various organizations. Joanne Etter and Mary Anne Aldinger edited the PARROT and the ECHO respectively. The musical and dramatic organizations presented a number of delightful programs. Various money-making projects were carried on in preparation for our Washington trip. At this point Commencement plans are beginning to materialize, and the seniors are preparing themselves for occupations or for further schooling. We look forward with anticipation to greater success in new fields of activity.

Music by RICHARD ANGLE

Roll on, Class of Forty-Nine,
Keep goin' 'till the end of time.
By our colors Blue and Gold,
Our character is told,
As we carry our shield before us.

We'll try to win our fame,
And strive for our every gain,
As we go through all the world,
With our banners unfurled,
We'll be true to the Blue and Gold.

RONALD MCCLEARY

We, the Class of 1950,
Ceasing never, always thrifty,
Will forward, onward fight
For our colors, the Red and White!

When we leave dear C. H. S.,
May we always do our best,
Strive to do what is the right,
Always faithful to Red and White!

Chorus:

1950! 1950! 1950! So
Hitch your wagon to a star,
Whether it be near or far.
If in life this is your aim,
Later it may bring you fame.

The PARROT is a six-page weekly publication of the Chambersburg High School published by the students, for the students, under the guidance of a faculty adviser. The members of the PARROT Staff are chosen on the basis of their ability to think and write. The 1947-1948 staff has won commendation for the quality of the papers it has put out. The best reward for serving on the staff is the valuable experience in journalism gained thereby.

The PARROT creates its own funds and pays its own expenses and is, therefore, to a great extent self-supporting. The paper is a member of the Pennsylvania Scholastic Press Association, the National Scholastic Press Association, and the Columbia Scholastic Press Association.

The Student Advisory Council is composed of the class presidents and the representatives from the various home rooms and clubs. It acts as the students' voice in the governing of the school and tries to aid in the directing of all worthy activities.

Among the activities of the Student Advisory Council this year were the purchasing of records for use in the gymnasium at noon, the sponsoring of a dance, and the purchasing of Bibles for the home rooms. The constitution of the organization was revised.

Closely associated with the Student Advisory Council are the two service clubs, the Traffic Squad and the Hall Squad. The Hall Squad maintains order in the halls, keeps the traffic moving on the stairs, and escorts visitors to their destination. The Traffic Squad protects pedestrians and bicyclists by directing traffic at dismissal. These two service clubs help to make our school a place where courtesy is practiced and where order is maintained.

Aeronautics Course

FUTURE FLYERS AND CRAFTSMEN

Instructor—ROBERT J. BEARD

The Aeronautics Course is provided for boys who are interested in aeronautics either as an occupation or as a hobby. It is especially beneficial to those who are interested in military aviation. Part of the year is spent in building airplane models. This gives the student a better understanding of the structure and operation of airplanes. The remainder of the year is devoted to the study of aerodynamics, meteorology, and the more technical parts of aviation. Efforts have been made to add flying time to the present curriculum. This would provide each member with practical and useful training for future use. The course is elective and open only to juniors and seniors.

WE, THE ATOMITES

Once there was a giant
Bigger'n one can imagine,
At least a million times
As big as this world—
Who lived in a land of giants.
His name was Adam.
Now someone invented a bomb
Which was guaranteed
To split the atom.
But the person who was selected
To make the bomb go off,
Misunderstood his instructions
And split Adam instead of the atom.
Adam was split in so many
Tiny little pieces
That all of them couldn't be found.
But a tiny fragment of his great toe
Was hurtled into the air.
And when it came down
A whole week later—
It landed on a scientist's microscope.
Now the scientist
Looked through his microscope,
Which was very powerful
By the way,
At Adam's toe,
And saw a tiny molecule
Which he split into atoms.
When he adjusted his
Mike and looked closer,
What do you think he found?
One atom named Jupiter,
One named Sun,
Many others with various names,
And one tiny one called Earth.
And on this tiny atom Earth
He saw—
You and me!

TO SPRING

O, Spring, influence of my dreams,
Speak to me of thy beauty.
For is it not thy duty
To charm me with thy golden beams
Of sunlight, which descend in streams
To this earth, and with thy music
Of the pipes of shepherds rustic?
And with the little flowers which seems
To call you sweet and fragrant names?
And with the birds which fly above?
And with the bashful lad who came
Just to tell me of his love?

YOU recall the story of the three stone masons. When asked what they were doing, the first said, "I am laying stone." The second man said, "I am earning ten dollars." The third man said, "I am building a cathedral." Something of the pride of the third man is in every employee of the Chambersburg Engineering Company (many of whom are graduates of Chambersburg High). They are all "building Chambersburg Hammers."
